For all you bikers out there

The truckers have done an amazing job starting this movement but they can't do it alone! together as a community we've come together for a lot less in the past, and we've accomplished amazing things! things people doubted we could do! As bikers we've always been outcasts or frowned upon by others so let's change what people think! Imagine thousands of bikers supporting our brothers and sisters in the capital! Thousands of bikers peaceful protesting for our country, cleaning up our city's or helping out our community, there's no better way for us to show our love how we really are as a community!!
